

A NEW and ACCURATE MAP OF THE EAST INDIA ISLANDS. Laid down according to the latest discoveries, and agreeable to the most approved Maps & Charts. The whole being regulated by Astronomical Observations. By Eman Bowen.

The Philippine Islands took their Name from Philip II. K. of Spain in whose Reign the Spaniards discovered them, and made their first settlements there in the Year 1565.

Sumatra is well peopled, affording all necessaries for Life. Their high Mountains cover it with divers kinds of Gold, Silver, Iron, Sulphur &c. Their Dens are inhabited by Elephants, Tigers, Rhinoceroses, Porcupines, Serpents &c. and in their Rivers are many Crocodiles.

Some of the Inland parts of the Islands of Borneo and Java, remain as yet unknown, because of many high Mountains, Forests, or Wildernesses with which they abound.

THE EASTERN OR INDIAN OCEAN

95 Longitude East 100 from London 105 110 115 120 125 130 135